Indian Geotechnical Conference IGC 2016
15-17 December 2016, IIT Madras, Chennai, India
Geotechnology towards Global Standards

Indian Geotechnical Conference, IGC, an annual event since its inception in the early 60s, has been in the forefront of all the programmes organised by IGS. The conference attracts more than 400 delegates every year.

IGS Chennai Chapter conducted IGC 1983 at IIT Madras (Indian Institute of Technology, Madras), IGC 1996 at College of Engineering Guindy, Anna University, and IGC 2006 at IIT Madras.

The chapter is proud to announce IGC 2016 again at IIT Madras during 15-17 December 2016. A pre-conference workshop is planned on 14 December 2016. The main theme of IGC 2016 is 'Geotechnology towards Global Standards' that has connotation of achieving, in the nearest future, the best possible standards in the design and practice of geotechnical engineering setting examples to the rest of the world.

About GIAN Course:

MHRD, Govt. of India has launched an innovative program titled "Global Initiative of Academic Networks (GIAN)" in higher Education, in order to garner the best international experience. As part of this, internationally renowned Academicians and Scientists are invited to augment the Country's academic resources, accelerate the pace of quality reforms and elevate India's scientific and technological capacity to global excellence.

About the Institute and Warangal:

National Institute of Technology, Warangal (NITW) formerly known as RECW is the first among seventeen RECs set up in 1959. Over the years, the Institute has established itself as a premier Institution in imparting technical education of a very high standard, leading to B.Tech, M.Tech and Ph.D. programmes in various specializations of Science and Engineering streams. Warangal is known for its rich historical and cultural heritage. It is situated at a distance of 140 km from Hyderabad. Warangal is well connected by rail and road. National Institute of Technology, Warangal campus is 3 km away from Kazipet railway station and 12 km away from Warangal railway station.

About the Department:

The Department of Civil Engineering offers B.Tech programme in Civil Engineering, 7 M.Tech programmes including Transportation Engineering and PhD programme. The department is a recognized QIP centre since 1978. The department has well established and well equipped laboratories. The Department has experienced faculty engaged in teaching, research, capacity building activities and industry extension services. Faculty members represent several policy making and professional bodies. The Department has liaison with reputed industries and R&D organizations.

Respected Sir,

Sub: Request for sanction of Rs. 2,69,700 /- as an advance towards publication charges in Scopus Index Journals - Regd.

With reference to the subject mention supra, I hereby request you to sanction Rs. 2,69,700 /- as an advance for publication charges in the Scopus Index Journals. I am happy to inform you that Sixty Two Papers (62) has been accepted for publication in Scopus Index Journals. The journals are going to be listed in Scopus web portal within two months. So, an amount of Rs. 2,69,700/- may be sanctioned for publication of the same in Scopus Index Journals as an advance amount.

Thanking you sir,

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. P. A. R. K. Raju)
